

NAME:JOHNSON, William PLACE OF BIRTH: Bradford, England ENTERED SERVICE: 25 Jan. 1878

DATES: b. 1852
d. 1933

---

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:      Position:      Post:      District:      HBCA Reference:

*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May

---

1878-1881	Second Engineer	SS Lily		A.12/FT 334/1[c], fo. 74
1881-1886	Engineer	Prince Albert Mill		A.12/FT 334/1[c], fo. 74
1886-1901	Engineer	SS Wrigley		A.12/FT 334/1[c], fo. 74
1901-1917	Engineer	SS Grahame (also Fort McMurray )		A.12/FT 334/1 [c], fo. 74
1918, 1 June	Retired on pension			RG3/40A/2
1921, April	Awarded gold medal with one bar for long service			RG3/40A/2
1933, 23 August	Died at Minden, Ontario. Survived by his wife, Lila.			RG2/52/1

Nicknamed "The Judge". Walter Johnson (b. 1885, employed as engineer on Mackenzie River, 1906-1923) was one of his two children. See The Beaver, Sept. 1948, pp. 22, 28, 46; RG3/40A/2.

On the contract he signed in 1878 his address is given as 18 Dean Street, Commercial Row, London.

A.32/35, fo. 121

Filename: Johnson, William (1852-1933) (fl. 1878-1918) AM/Jan. 1990 Rev.AM/Jan. 1996