

Appointments &amp; Service

Year	Position	Ship	Voyage	HBCA Reference
1891	A.B.	Perseverance	Hudson Bay	C.3/19, fo. 19
1892-1893	A.B.	Perseverance	Whaling Voyage	C.3/19, fo. 29
1894-1895	Mate	Perseverance	Whaling Voyage	C.3/19, fo. 41
1895, Aug./Oct.	Mate	Erik	Labrador & Hudson Bay	C.3/19, fo. 37; E.188/21
1896	3rd Mate	Erik	Labrador & Hudson Bay	C.3/19, fo. 39; E.188/21
1896, Aug.-1897, Oct.	Master	Perseverance	Whaling Voyage	C.3/19, fo. 43; E.188/177
Not in HBC Service
1927	Master	Fort Garry	Labrador/Baffin Island	Clark, p. 67
1927, Nov.	Master	Nascopie	Homeward Voyage	A.92/16/15
1928-1930	Master	Nascopie	Bay Voyage/Sealing	Ship's History
1932	Master	Karise	Vancouver/Western Arctic/Seattle	Clark, p. 67

Home address: Scroggieside, Wormit-on-Tay, Fifeshire. Name of wife: Euphemia

For correspondence with him, 1927-1931, see A.92/Misc./500 & 505; A.92/16/7, 15 & 16.

For his account of his career, see letter of 23 Dec. 1927.

A.92/16/7, fo. 7-8

He was a brother of Captain Alexander Murray (see Biog.) and a son of Captain Alexander Murray, Sr.

SF, "Murray, J.W."

For his career as a whole, see G.V. Clark, "An Arctic Veteran", The Beaver, Summer 1970, pp. 64-67.

This article also refers to his brother.

For his career with the Arctic Gold Exploration Syndicate, see Henry Toke Munn, Prairie Trails and Arctic By-ways, Hurst & Blackett: London, 1932.

