

NAME: PRINCE, Mark

PARISH: Stockton
{also London, Middlesex}

ENTERED SERVICE:1788, 19 April
(A.32/3, p.181)

DATES:b.ca.1761.

---

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
1788-1793	Superintendent of the craft (travelled inland)		Albany	A.16/5, p.111; A.16/6;A.30/4,5; B.3/d/100-102
1793, Sept/ 1794, Aug.	To Europe and return by King George			A.16/6, fo.55; C.1/395, 396
1794-1797	Craftmaster		Albany	A.30/6-10; B.3/d/104-106
1797-1798	Long boat master	Henley House	Albany	B.3/d/107
1798-1799	Inlander	Osnaburgh	Albany	B.3/d/109
1799-1800	Inlander	Pointe au Foutre	Albany	B.3/d/110
1800-1801	Inlander			B.3/d/112
1805-1813	Shallop master	Albany Factory	Albany	A.30/11, 12; B.3/d/117,119,122,125,127, 133,134,136,137
1813-1821	Master of a Goose Tent (sometimes wintered at Albany Factory)	Kapiskaw	Albany	A.16/8, 19; A.30/12-15; B.3/d/139,141,143;B.3/e/1-7
1821-1826	Interpreter, i/c Goose Tent	Kapiskaw	Albany	B.3/e/8-13; B.135/g/1-7
1826, Autumn	Discharged; embarked from Moose Factory for Europe in the ship Camden accompanied by his family, Jane and Faith			B.135/g/7; C.1/228, fo.4-4d.

A daughter, Faith, aged 6, was admitted to the school at Albany on 7 September 1808. A daughter, Mary, aged 14, "scarcely knowing the Letters", was admitted on 23 March 1809.

B.3/a/112, fo. 1, 2d.,5

Jane Prince, native of Albany, married George Taylor Jr., surveyor, on 11 January 1828, at Red River

E.4/1b, fo.222

For oral history about Mark Prince, his wife and daughters, see Doug Hamm and Louis Bird, "Amoe: Legends of the Omushkegowak", in Papers of the Thirty-First Algonquian Conference, ed. by John D. Nichols, (University of Manitoba Press, 2000), pp. 144-160.